VOL. IV. NO. 14. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JANUARY 16—17, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

John Condon and Sam Dahl will race some 2-year-olds of their own breeding this year. Out in Colorado they own a ranche on which they have a band of well bred brood-mares and the stallions Falero and Oakley. Five 2-year-olds by the latter horse have been ordered sent to Chicago for training. Their somewhat heavenly names and pedigrees are as follows:

Asteroid, ch. f, by Oakley—Gypsum.
Uranus, b. c, by Oakley—Gracia.
The Sun, ch. c, by Oakley—Larinda.
The Earth, ch. c, by Oakley—Jersey Maid.
The Moon, ch. c, by Oakley—Flavilla.

The New Boston Oyster House is a restaurant at which racing folks can get the attention they usually pay for and do not receive. Jim Murdough, its manager, has a soft side for the clan. He has long been and is a member of it. In its new dress the Boston Oyster House outclasses every other establishment of its kind in this country as to general appointment, cuisine and service. Its cafe is a glory. Friday night the beauty of the place was enhanced by a bevy of fair stage women, who were entertained to a late dinner of royal proportions by a well-known man about town.

Nothing was done about selecting a starter and judges at the annual meeting of the Jockey Club Thursday. It is probable that no selection will be made until early in April. Messrs. August Belmont, J. H. Bradford, James R. Keene and F. K. Sturgis were re-elected stewards to serve two years, and certain of the racing rules were amended to read as follows:

Rule 79, third paragraph, is amended to read: In case of a walk over (except after a dead heat and in selling races), one half of the money offered to the winner is given.

Rule 99, second paragraph, is amended to read: With the sanction of the starter, a horse may be led to his position. The jockey must not dismount except to set right insecure equipments, and then only with the permission of the starter.

Rule 131, sixth paragraph, is amended to read: Any person who shall attempt to prevent another person from bidding on the winner of a selling race or claiming any horse in such race, or demand any portion of the surplus from the owners of horses which are entitled to it, or any owners running in selling races who may make any agreement for the protection of each other's horses in contravention of these rules, shall be fined, suspended or ruled off.

It is well known that Marcus Daly, acting through his very capable agent Ed A. Tipton, has bought a number of the most noted broodmares in Kentucky, Hamburg's dam included. But the extent of his operations in that line is not so well known. It is best shown by the following valuable horses that left Lexington for Daly's Bitter Root ranche in Montana:

Lady Reel (dam of Hamburg), b. m, 12, by Fellowcraft—Mannie Gray, with foal to Hanover.
Fleur d'Or, b. m, 11, by Rayon d'Or—Blandona, with foal to Hanover.

The Parmer-Hendrie syndicate has decided on dates and stakes for their Michigan-Canada circuit, the order being as follows:

Highland Park, June 7 to 23—Detroit Derby, 1¼ miles, $2,000; 3-year-old fillies, 1 mile, $1,000; 3-year-olds and upward, selling, 7-8 mile, $1,000; 2-year-old colts and fillies, ½ mile, $1000.

At Ft. Erie, June 25 to July 12—Canadian Derby, three-year-olds, 1½ miles, $2,500; three-year-olds and upward, selling, 1 mile, $1,000; handicap, three-year-olds and upward, 1⅛ miles, $1,300; two-year-old fillies, 5 furlongs, $1000; two-year-olds that have not won a stake valued at $600, 5 furlongs, $1000.

Montreal, July 14 to 30—The stakes for this meeting will be announced in the stake book, which will be out next week. They will aggregate $5,000.

Windsor, August 2 to 17—Consolation Stakes, for three-year-olds, 1 1-4 miles, $1,000; two-year-old colts and geldings, 5 furlongs, $1,000; three-year-olds and upwards, conditions, 1 1-8 miles, $1,000; two-year-old colts and fillies, 5 1-2 furlongs, $1,000; two-year-old fillies, 5 furlongs, $1,000.

The way of the handlers of ringers will be hard in the land appertaining to the immediate vicinity of Barksdale. Every effort was made yesterday to secure the reinstatement of the Weir outfit, but it was of no use. The first special ambassador to put in an appearance at the track was Henry Schultz, better known in ring circles as "Dutch" Henry, the proprietor of a New York bird store, the racing partner of Frank D. Weir, and foreign poolroom commissioner for the same gentleman. With tears in his voice, Henry told a pipe story that was a dream in its way. He was so overcome with his emotion that it took considerable time for him to get down to the details of his beautiful fairy story. He said that two unknown men, claiming Baltimore as their place of habitation, sought him out and requested him to place $600 on Jersey Boy for them. The names of these two angels were not divulged, Henry evidently being shy a Baltimore directory or two. Now, Henry being wise, thought he would follow his Baltimore friends' tip, and he chipped in to the tune of $400, making the pot $1,000 in all. It just goes to show what a trustful nature Henry has. Of course he would bet $400 on any old thing—for instance, the rising of the sun in the morning. But despite the weight of this evidence, the hard-headed Executive Committee refused to grant absolution to the jobbers. It is just possible that the committee may have been influenced in its action by the report of Mr. Edward Marks, one of the owners of the track, who made a little investigation on his own account. He learned that the New York and Brooklyn rooms stood to pay out $25,000 on "Jersey Boy"—that as a matter of fact this poor skate which had been given away to a colored rubber as being of no earthly account, had been the best played horse of the season. Just think of those babies betting all that money unless they had an ace or two in the hole. —Philadelphia Inquirer.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is reported in New York that the officials of the Saratoga Racing Association are so dissatisfied with the dates assigned them by the stewards of the Jockey Club that they may not give a meeting this year. However, since it is apparent that the Jockey Club gave Saratoga the very best dates available, it is probable that their disappointment will wear away as they read the big entry lists to the Gravesend and Coney Island stakes, just closed, and the terms of their events may be speedily announced for the consideration of turfmen west and east.

The Secretary of the Washington Club announces the conditions for the third Washington Nursery of $6,000 for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs, to be run at the Bennings spring meeting of 1900. The purse is to be split up as follows. To the winner, $4,000; to the second, $700; to the third, $300; to the nominator of the dam of the winner, $500; to the nominator of the dam of the second, $300, and to the nominator of the dam of the third, $200. Subscriptions close February 2.

The first Libertine youngster will make its appearance in a few days. The dam of the embryo record breaker is Minnie Elkins, winner of the Colorado Derby. This is the mare that escaped drowning when the Sunol went down in the bay. Melanie, it will be remembered, perished, but Minnie Elkins swam until rescued from a watery grave.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The latest report about Tod Sloan, via cable from London, at that, is that he is coming home especially to ask for release from his contract to ride for Fleischmann Sons. It is not stated, however, that anybody in England has offered him any more, or as much as the very liberal salary of $12,000 the Fleishmanns are to pay him.

Gus Straus of Lexington, has bought from Dr. J. D. Neet, of Versailles, Ky., two yearling colts by Spendthrift that should be worth any man's owning. Both are chestnuts. One is a full brother of Hastings, the other a half brother of the speedy colt Handsel.

The popular English actor John Hare entered the list of owners at the recent Newmarket December sales, having purchased the good horse Count Schomburg for the neat sum of $25,500. It is rumored that he had partners in the purchase.

Woodland Belle, ch. f, 4, by Woodlands—Minnehaha Belle, while being schooled over the jumps recently in California, fell and was so severely injured that she was destroyed.

Tom Boyle has named his Stromboli—Clara L 2-year-old Absidene. This youngster is one of the most promising in training in California.

The colt George Rose, by George Kinney—Hindoo Rose, badly cut down in a recent race at San Francisco, is dead.

Walter Jennings has turned Miss Prim and Chic out in the hope that a rest may help them to an increase of speed.

Tom Middleton is the name claimed by Mr. Charles Scoggan for the 2-year-old full brother to Flora Louise.

Firenzi is in foal to Goldfinch and will be bred back to the English-bred son of Ormonde.

Elidad does not seem to have much class and was short. Watch Chihuahua, who is, however, but a sprinter. Tyrant likes a fast track; was poorly handled. Scintillate was closing on field at end. The other four are of no account.

Scratched—Glenower, 99; Master Mariner, 109.

He is ready, but will do best in fast going. Barr was just outrun. King William is ready and finished strong. Buckwa's race will not do. Tom Cromwell had awful luck and seems to favor fast going.
